LOINCLOTHS, THE IRREPLACABLE OF BEACHES

Loincloth is a towel wrapped around the waist and woven out of cotton. Today, it is also used in saunas, beaches and our houses as bath towels.

Loincloths were transferred to beaches as it is soft, comfy and lighter than the towel.

The loincloths with options in shiny and pastel tones, and with minimalist designs took its place in beaches this year. You can look both classy and comfy in the happy holiday shots thanks to our loincloths in the summer collection with modern lines.”
